From the Chairperson...

Good afternoon,

A warm welcome to Manurewa War Memorial Park for today's Dettol Northern League clash between Manurewa AFC and Birkenhead United. Whether you're a loyal Rewa supporter or joining us from the other side of the bridge, we're thrilled to have you here.

Back again at home, and we're excited to be back on familiar turf. There's nothing quite like the energy of a home crowd, so let's make sure the team feels that support from the sidelines today your voice really does make a difference!

To our visitors from Birkenhead United, welcome to Manurewa. We look forward to a competitive and spirited match, played in great footballing spirit.

A huge thank you as always to our volunteers, committee members, and sponsors. Your tireless work behind the scenes makes days like this possible and keeps our club running strong.

RAFFLE ALERT

Make sure to head into the clubrooms today to purchase your raffle ticket for an incredible prize an authentic signed Lionel Messi shirt. This is a rare collector's item, and all proceeds go towards supporting our youth development programs. Don't miss out!

Good luck to both teams today. Let's enjoy the football, back our boys in blue, and make it a day to remember!

From the Head Coach...

As we welcome Birkenhead United today, we do so knowing the challenge ahead — they're a top side with proven quality. But we also know what we've been building here at Manurewa AFC.

This season has tested us. It's asked questions of our character, our resilience, and our togetherness. But through it all, this group has continued to respond. We've had seven Under-20s feature this season — six of them playing at this level for the first time. We've finished matches with an average age of just 20, and yet the effort, the belief, and the growth we've seen is something I'm incredibly proud of.

The last two results have shown the direction we're heading. The momentum is shifting, the group is uniting, and the work on the training ground is beginning to show on match day.

We're aware of the position we're in, but we're not defined by it. We're defined by our response. And today is another opportunity to move forward — together.

Thank you to everyone who continues to support this journey. To our players and staff: your effort does not go unnoticed. I'm proud to lead this team, and I believe in what we're building.
